TABLE CAPTAIN A COMMUNITY CHAMPION

Blue Dress 2024

COMMUNITY CHAMPION

Thank you for becoming a Table Captain for the Blue Dress Breakfast. Your role is pivotal!

By inviting your family, neighbors, friends, and colleagues to join us for breakfast, you are ensuring the event will be successful in raising essential support for the work of St. Vincent de Paul of Seattle/King County helping thousands across King County who are at risk and struggling to make ends meet.

You're not just a Table Captain, you are a Community Champion keeping families together, healthy, and housed.

YOUR IMPACT

Your support funds critical social service programs.

GEORGETOWN FOOD BANK

The Georgetown Food Bank and Community Center serves neighbors by providing food, free clothing, health checkups, resource assistance, and a community connector program that serves neighbors with outside resources.

CASE MANAGEMENT

Case managers help neighbors gain access to resources while providing services to those overcoming addiction, mental illness, unemployment, homelessness, and returning to lives of self-sufficiency.

HELPLINE

The Helpline connects those in desperate need of housing solutions, rent and utility assistance, and basic needs with supportive programs and services.

CENTRO RENDU

Centro Rendu provides Latino families with culturally relevant programs, including early childhood education, academic support, case management, legal advocacy, job training, and leadership development.

PERSON-TO-PERSON VISITS

Vincentian volunteers, in 48 neighborhood-based teams, make over 16,000 person-to-person visits annually, assisting families and individuals with rent, utilities, food & other basic needs.

HOW IT WORKS

As a Table Captain, you will:

- Collect 7 guests to sit with you at your table by sharing why supporting St. Vincent de Paul is so important to you and to neighbors in our community who are low-income or experiencing homelessness.
- Invite your family members, friends, fellow parishioners, and/or colleagues.

Keep track of your progress:

- Track your guests using the 'Tracking Sheet' provided (below)
- Confirm with your guests by email or phone after they have accepted your invitation.
- Visit www.svdpsseattle.org/blue-dress/ to register your guests

-or-

- Send a final guest list to Lisa Hubert at bluedress@svdpseattle.org by May 2nd, 2025.

Enjoy the event with your honored guests.

- Arrive by 7:30 a.m. to locate your table and greet your guests as they arrive.
- Review your Table Captain packet, which will include pledge cards, envelopes, and pens for your guests to use during the 'ask for donations'.
- Collect the completed envelopes from your guests and leave your packet on the table (our finance team will collect the packets from the tables).

2025 Celebrity Emcee

Emmy award-winning producer and sports broadcaster Jen Mueller will serve as host and emcee for the 2025 Blue Dress Breakfast.

A 23-year sports broadcasting veteran, Jen currently serves as the Seattle Seahawks radio sideline reporter and is a member of the Seattle Mariners television broadcast team on ROOT SPORTS.

She was honored for her work in the industry in 2022 as the recipient of the Keith Jackson Media Excellence Award presented by the Seattle Sports Commission. In addition to her work on the sidelines, Jen is an established business communication expert and the founder of Talk Sporty to Me. She's published three books that outline her approach to conversations and effective communication. She is also the executive producer, host and creator of "I Cook, You Measure" a cooking show on YouTube.
